

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY MONITORING FORM

We will use the information from this questionnaire to monitor our recruitment process to make sure we are treating everyone in a fair and equal way. The questions have been designed to gather data about applicants in relation to the characteristics protected by the law under the Equality Act 2010.

This monitoring form is not considered as part of the application process and will not be seen by those reviewing applications or interviewing candidates.

We will keep the information from this questionnaire confidential and store it in line with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the Bar Council's Privacy Policy. By submitting such sensitive personal information to us, you explicitly consent to the collection and processing of your sensitive personal information.

You do not need to fill in this questionnaire but we hope that you do so.
